

Blue Stars partners with Certified College Funding Specialist to provide financially informed admissions assistance

May 4, 2018

Introducing Sally Wu

In an effort to guide students and families in making the best admissions decisions, Dr. M has partnered with accomplished financial planner Sally Wu of the Eagle View Foundation. Sally brings to the partnership an extensive career in coaching and financial planning, and has spent over 10 years specializing in college funding. Sally applies her unique strategy to help college-bound families save money on expenses while reserving their wealth for retirement by exploring need-based aid, merit-based and tax scholarships.

New Financial Planning Service for Admissions Students

Blue Stars now offers financial planning services, which can be added on to any admissions package. The new service includes:

- Expert financial planning advice
- Analysis of admissions options from a financial aid perspective
- Assistance with FAFSA filing/CSS PROFILE filing
- Exploration of need-based aid, merit-based scholarship and tax scholarship

Contact us today to learn more about this exciting new offering!